

ANABAPTIST ESSENTIALS

FOR TODAY & TOMORROW'S CHURCH

*Connecting Our Roots
to Modern Ministry*

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2026

Join us for a day focused on the roots & relevance of Anabaptism.

9:00 AM—3:30 PM

Refreshments and check-in begin at 8:30 AM.

MIDDLE CREEK CHURCH

351 W. Middle Creek Road, Lititz, PA 17543

$35 Individual | $125 Group Rate (4+) | Lunch Included

LEARN • CONNECT • GROW TOGETHER

A one-day seminar for anyone who desires a deeper understanding of Anabaptist faith & practice

ANABAPTIST ESSENTIALS

FOR TODAY & TOMORROW'S CHURCH

*Connecting Our Roots
to Modern Ministry*

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2026

Join us for a day focused on the roots & relevance of Anabaptism.

9:00 AM—3:30 PM

Refreshments and check-in begin at 8:30 AM.

MIDDLE CREEK CHURCH

351 W. Middle Creek Road, Lititz, PA 17543

$35 Individual | $125 Group Rate (4+) | Lunch Included

LEARN • CONNECT • GROW TOGETHER

A one-day seminar for anyone who desires a deeper understanding of Anabaptist faith & practice

TWO SPEAKERS • ONE CONVERSATION

WILLIAM HIGGINS

Understanding the Roots & Core Values of Anabaptism

William Higgins serves with LMC Fellowship of Anabaptist Churches in theological education and Anabaptist identity formation and also works in discipleship training and leadership development. He and his wife, Stacey, attend New Danville Mennonite Church.

NATHAN RITTENHOUSE

Capturing the Relevance of Anabaptism for Today's Church

Nathan Rittenhouse (M.Div., Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary) has spoken on Christian apologetics in churches, campuses, and conferences since 2013. He is co-founder of the Thinking Out Loud podcast and serves as a bi-vocational minister at New Hope Brethren Church in West Virginia.

EVENT COST • LUNCH INCLUDED

$35 Individual • $125 Group of 4+ (same organization)

Please register by Saturday, October 17

► HOW TO REGISTER ◀

acts2fellowshipofchurches.org/events/seminar

Prefer to call? (717)859-2156

PRESENTED BY ACTS²

*Equipping and connecting churches
to walk faithfully together.*

TWO SPEAKERS • ONE CONVERSATION

WILLIAM HIGGINS

Understanding the Roots & Core Values of Anabaptism

William Higgins serves with LMC Fellowship of Anabaptist Churches in theological education and Anabaptist identity formation and also works in discipleship training and leadership development. He and his wife, Stacey, attend New Danville Mennonite Church.

NATHAN RITTENHOUSE

Capturing the Relevance of Anabaptism for Today's Church

Nathan Rittenhouse (M.Div., Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary) has spoken on Christian apologetics in churches, campuses, and conferences since 2013. He is co-founder of the Thinking Out Loud podcast and serves as a bi-vocational minister at New Hope Brethren Church in West Virginia.

EVENT COST • LUNCH INCLUDED

$35 Individual • $125 Group of 4+ (same organization)

Please register by Saturday, October 17

► HOW TO REGISTER ◀

acts2fellowshipofchurches.org/events/seminar

Prefer to call? (717)859-2156

PRESENTED BY ACTS²

*Equipping and connecting churches
to walk faithfully together.*

